Students of Month-January

Austin is presenting the certificate of accomplishment to Amanina Rashid who is currently attending college at St. Catherine. She was a former SOM from Century High School that did not get recognized since she had gone on to college early. If I got the info correct, she comes from the 4-H through Century. She was recognized for her definition of dyslexia to the State Senate. It sounds like she will pursue politics in some form.

Andrew Deick presented by Dan Nelson.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time.

Andrew represents Lourdes and was supported by his math teacher on his left. Andrew is a 'math nerd' by the sound of things. He is very bright and has a goal to get to college and pursue something in software engineering. Go for it Andrew!

Yuxuan (Alice) Geng represented Mayo High School. Among other things, Alice is a new officer in Key Club International. We congratulate her for her leadership in that organization. Alice is a Social Studies student and has already been accepted to Yale. She's another one of Rochester's bright stars. Her father attended lunch with her.

Del Lawson presents Amber Dierhising her certificate. She is a student representing 4-H and was a student from Lourdes.

We give the 4-H students a bit of tongue-in-cheek hard time when we get the paper information from them. They always have a quality photo as well as a 2-3 page single space essay on why they think they have earned the award. Not many of us could do that without a yeoman effort.

A bumper crop of students again this month. We honor all of them!

We received a nice letter of Thanks from 'Next Chapter Ministries' for our contribution of $250 to their ministry.

Are you ready?

How many Cows?

An improved version of an old story, still true.

A cowboy named Bud was overseeing his herd in a remote mountainous pasture in Montana when suddenly a brand-new 2018 BMW advanced toward him out of a cloud of dust. The driver, a young man named Cliff in a Brioni® suit, Gucci® shoes, RayBan® sunglasses and YSL® tie, leaned out the window and asked the cowboy, "If I tell you exactly how many cows and calves you have in your herd, will you give me a calf?"

Bud looks at the man, who obviously is a yuppie, then looks at his peacefully grazing herd and calmly answers, "Sure, why not?"

The yuppie parks his car, whips out his Dell® notebook computer, connects it to his Apple iPhone, and surfs to a NASA page on the Internet, where he calls up a GPS satellite to get an exact fix on his location which he then feeds to another NASA satellite that scans the area in an ultra-high-resolution photo.

The young man then opens the digital photo in Adobe Photoshop® and exports it to an image processing facility in Hamburg, Germany

Within seconds, he receives an email on his Apple iPad® that the image has been processed and the data stored. He then accesses an MS-SQL® database through an ODBC connected Excel® spreadsheet with email on his Galaxy S5® and, after a few minutes, receives a response.

Finally, he prints out a full-color, 150-page report on his hi-tech, miniaturized HP LaserJet® printer, turns to the cowboy and says, "You have exactly 1,586 cows and calves."

"That's right. Well, I guess you can take one of my calves," says Bud.

He watches the young man select one of the animals and looks on with amusement as the young man stuffs it into the trunk of his car.

Then Bud says to the young man, "Hey, if I can tell you exactly what your business is, will you give me back my calf?"

The young man thinks about it for a second and then says, "Okay, why not?"

"You're a Congressman for the U.S. Government", says Bud.

"Wow! That's correct," says the yuppie, "but how did you guess that?"

"No guessing required." answered the cowboy. "You showed up here even though nobody called you; you want to get paid for an answer I already knew, to a question I never asked. You used millions of dollars worth of equipment trying to show me how much smarter than me you are; and you don't know squat about how working people make a living - or about cows, for that matter. This is a herd of sheep."

"Now give me back my dog."
